June with Divadelná Nitra

Temperature is rising as well as our working tempo! Read some remarks, which will disclose you how are projects of Divadelná Nitra Association developing, how do we prepare the festival for you and what are we going to present you in the nearest future.

On Friday we will REvitalize a flower bed for the visually impaired

Summer is coming and it is the best time for parks and gardens. A flower bed for visually impaired children, which was created by A Tulip for You project on the premises of Primary School for Blind and Visually Impaired Children in Bratislava on Svrča Street, will get a new, better form on June 15, 2018. In collaboration with volunteers from Deloitte, company which supports the project for the long period of time, children

Curators of the Slovak programme will be from MLOKi

Members of the cultural organization MLOKi participate in the organization of Divadelná Nitra 2018 with the subtitle RE. Zuzana Andrejcová Ferusová, Katarína Cvečková, Lucia Lejková and Martina Mašárová were chosen to be curators of the Slovak part of the main programme of the festival. The association, which is known as the publisher of the internet with health problems will be involved in REvitalization of the premises where they live all year-round. Academic sculptor Elena Kárová, the coordinator of this event and project A Tulip For You, explains that visually impaired children recognize plants by touching and smelling, which is vital in their handicap. Moreover, each species is given its name in Braille.

All roads lead to Theatre

Within the EU-DNA III project (European Debate and Network Activities/ Divadelná Nitra Association) we REalize our dreams to make tours not only in Slovakia, but also to interesting foreign events and meetings with important partners. After the May trip to the Theatertreffen, the most popular festival in German language area, we visited Austrian Festival Wiener Festwochen. In the nearest future we are going to the Nordic countries for the theatre in Helsinki. The EU DNA project is supported using public funding by Slovak Arts Council, main partner of the project.

magazine about culture, was created at the initiative of young critics of theatrical art, whose aim is to search for new opportunities for REflection and popularization of the theatre criticism. The final list of selected Slovak productions will be known after the festival Touches & Connections in Martin .

Members of Divadelná Nitra Association gave their vote!

On the last day of May, members of the Association met on the premises of Academy of Performing Arts in Bratislava to summarize the activities of the Association and at the same time discussed its future. Besides, the most important issue was the election of new members of the board of directors and members of the ADN supervisory board. These are members of the board of directors chosen for the next four-year term: Lujza Bakošová, Slavka Civáňová, Dáša Čiripová, Katarína Figula Dudáková, Darina Kárová, Ján Šimko a Soňa Šimková. Among the members of the board of directors, Sonia Šimková was re-elected as chairwoman of the Association, Darina Kárová as the executive director, Ján Šimko became the vice-chairman of the Association. The supervisory board will be represented by Svetozár Sprušanský, Eva Hlaváčová and Ivan Gontko, who was also chosen as chairman of the supervisory board. Congratulations and we wish the Association a lot of success in the REalization of all projects.

Open Call : V4@THEATRE
Critics RESidency

The fourth edition of the V4 @ THEATRE Critics RESidency will also take place during the festival. This is an international RESidence for young theatre critics up to 35 years old from 9 countries from Central and Eastern Europe. Within it, a group of 16 participants will work at the festival under the mentorship of world-renowned teatrologist Patrice Pavis. More detailed information as well as a call for applications for the participating countries will be published soon.
