

May News of Divadelná Nitra!

The projects of Divadelná Nitra Association are successfully being developed, the preparation of the festival is in full swing and here are the latest news that shouldn't be missed.

This is art, too is on the streets again!

Successful project will reveal you forgotten and ignored works of art, sculptures or objects in the public space of Nitra. We've just installed Recycled information stands in the city from 2014 to 2017 and thanks to the support of Nitra Community Foundation we are preparing new ones in the summer.

Thanks to the given grant from Slovak Arts Council nothing prevent us from starting to process and step by step make accessible more than 25 years of archives of the Divadelná Nitra Association for study purposes. There are over 6,000 documentary materials - lists, photographs, video recordings, texts of productions, publications, catalogues, annual publications ... Many of them are unique and do not occur in Slovakia

Divadelná Nitra – is not only an international festival

The first event of the educational project How to Understand Theatre 2018 took place in April. Students-participants of the project were present during first read-through rehearsals of A Clockwork Orange – a new production of the Andrej Bagar Theatre. The project will prolongate its function till autumn and will also welcome students from Academy of Performing Arts in Bratislava and from Academy of Arts in Banská Bystrica at the
